Children owe much of their Sickness to Colds.—No matter where the disease may appear to be seated, its origin may be traced to suppressed perspiration or a Cold. Cramps and Lung Complaints are direct products of Colds. In short Colds are the harbingers of half the diseases that afflict humanity, for as they are caused by checked perspiration, and as five-eights of the waste matter of the body escapes through the pores, if these pores are closed, that portion of diseases necessarily follows. Keep clear, therefore, of Colds and Coughs, the great precursers of disease, or if contracted, break them up immediately, by a timely use of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam. Sold by all Druggists, at 13 cents and 25 cents per bottle.

Letters from Major Jack Downing.

SECOND SERIES—NO. III.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19, 1863.

To the Editors of the Dabook:

SURS:—If I ain't been bizzy seace I writ you last, then never a man was. Besides, I've had a considerabul twinge of my old inemy, the rheumatiz. This ere Washington atmosfere is terribul on the constitushin. The Kernel, too, was nigh about down sick one day; but we both tuk a good old-fashianed wiskeysling, of the very best Old Rye, and went to bed on it. The next mornin we both felt fust rate. The Kernel keeps as good wiskey as I ever got enywhere. We have been very hard at work on the messige, and such a time as we have had of it you never did see. Stanton don't know how meny sojers he has got in the field, nor how meny have been killed or wounded. Grandfather Welles can't tell how many gunbotes he's got, an as for Chase, he don't purtend to even guess for a certainty, how many greenbacks there are aflote or how big the public debt is. The Kernel sed he couldn't even lay the foundashin timber of his messige until he had some figgers about the debt to begin on. So I told him I would go over an see Chase and have a talk with him. I tuk my slate under my arm an started. Soon as I went in Chase tuk me by the hand an sed he was rale down rite glad to see me. I telled him what I wanted, an he sed he would soon have it reddy for me, but jest then he asked me to go up stairs an see the machecenery an printin presses, and so on, that he had got to make money. He sed the worst of it was that the machenes was constantly gettin out of order, and he wanted to know if I understood any thing about sich affairs. I telled him there warnt nothing from squirrel traps to dog churns and thrashing machecenes that I didn't know from stem to starn.—Then he sed I was jest the chap he wanted. So I went with him, and I was perfectly thunderstruck when I saw all the riggin and fixins, and belts, and shafts, and pulleys and machenes all a runnin and whizzin, and buzzin, as fast as they could go. Ses the Secketary, "this here macheen runs to pay off Gineral Grant's troops. This one runs to pay off Gineral Meade's troops.—This one runs for Gineral Banks. This one is now bizzy for Gineral Burnside, and here is this ere one completely broken down. It is Gineral Gillmore's macheen!" "Wal," ses I, "Mr. Secketary, do you have a macheen for every Gineral and every army?" "Yey," ses he, "about that." "Wal," ses I, "what do you do about the contracters!" "Oh," ses he, "I ain't showed you them yet. That's in another room." Ses he, "come along with me." So I follered, and we went off into another room. It was nigh about ten times as big as the first one, and there were hundreds of presses runnin as fast as they could go. "There," ses he, "if these here machenes were to stop one day, it would set all Wall street into a panic. Sometimes, when the belts give out or the bolts break, or the coal gits short, or paper don't git in in time, there is a good deal of troubil, but I've got it so fixed now, that I keep 'em putty well supplied." Ses I, "Mr. Secketary, who is your engineer?" "Wal," ses he, "he's a good trusty man." "But," ses I, "suppose he should bust your bilers, what would Wall street do then?" "Wal," ses he, "I never thought of that, but I guess there ain't eny danger." "Wal," ses I, "steam is mighty onsartin. Old Aunt Keziah Wiggleton up in Maine, used to say that the only safe way to run a steamboat was to take the bilers out, and my opinion is, that a government run by steam will bust up one of these days." Chase didn't seem to like this last remark much, but he didn't say enything. We cum down stairs putty soon after, and a feller with a brown linin coat on, nigh about all over ink, brought a hull lot of papers covered over with figgers, and sed that Mr. Linkin could find out all he wanted to from them. I looked 'em over, but I couldn't make hed nor tail to them. "Wal," ses I, "perhaps a chap who understands dubble and twisted entry bookkeepin' can onderstand this ere figgering, but I'll be hanged if I kin." Ses I, "here's seven thirtys, and five twentys, and six percent, and five percent, and bonds and stocks and sartificates, and '68s, and 78s, and '96s, and 158s, and Lord knows how meny more 8s, until it gets all mixed up so that you can't tell enything more about the debt than Stantin kin tell how meny sojers has been killed and wounded. Now," ses I, "the people don't care a straw enything about your six twentys, or your five twentys. All they want to know is jest how much money this ere war has cost, and that is what I'me tryin' to figger out for 'em—When old Gineral Jackson wanted me to go into Squire Biddle's Bank and cifer out how matters stood I soon did it, but that wan't eny more comparin to this here affair, than the bunch of elder bushes in Deacon Jenkin's meadow is to the Dismal Swamp. I tuk the papers, however, over to Linkin, for it was the best I could do. Wen I handed them to the Kernel, ses he, "Majer, does Chase expect me to survive after studyin out these figgers?" "Wal," ses I, "Kernel, I don't know, but I think Chase wants to be next President."

The Kernel tuk the hint rite off; but he sed Chase would never be President, for he wanted to be so bad, that he acted all the time as if a bumble bee was stingin him, and that his flyin round so would kill him off, if nothin else. We then both sot down and went to studyin the figgers. I cifered with my slate, and the Kernel made chalk marks on his hat every time we got up to a million of dollars. Purty soon the Kernel's eyes began to look wild, and ses he, "Major where do we land next? Is she hedin up stream or sideways? She'll go down sure as thunder. Well, let her rip: she's been a sinkin consarn for years." I see at once that the Kernel was flighty. Chase's figgers had turned his hed, and he thought he was flatbotin again on Mississippi river. But he kept on ravin. Ses he, "Majer, knock that nigger off the bow of the bote; he's rite in the way of the pilot." Ses I, "Kernel, it ain't safe to hit a nigger in those days; Stanton will put 'em in Fort LaFayette." I tho't this might bring the Kernel to his senses, but it didn't. Ses he "There it goes, Major, jest as I told you, rite on that snag. That nigger is to blame for the hull of it." I see it was no use, that the Kernel was nigh about starkmad, an so I said to him, ses I, "let's put up this work to-night, an go to bed." He didn't want to, but I dragged him off, an he kept ravin' all the time, "That nigger has ruined me! There he comes—he is after me yet!"

As soon as I got the Kernel in bed, I put a double set of mustard plasters on his feet, an then gave him a strong dose of my old remedy, elder bark tea. I knew that would cure him, if anything on arth. Purty soon the sweat began to start, an the gripin in the bowels began. Jest as soon as this took place, it drawed all the disease out of his head, an the next mornin he was as bright as new dimes used to be when there was sich things.

The fust thing the Kernel sed to me in the mornin was, ses he, "Majer I hed an awful dream last nite." Ses I, "What was it?" Wal," ses he, "I dreamt that the nigger had destroyed the Union." "Wal," ses I, "Kernel, you git nearer the truth in your dreams than you ginerally do when you are wide awake. If you will only have another dream, you will see that the Abolishinists have killed the Union, and that the poor nigger is only the means that they have used to do it."

The Kernel didn't say nothin, but looked down on the floor an whistled. Finally he tuk out of his pocket one of Chase's new fifty cent shinplasters, an ses he, "Majer, kin you tell me why this new currency has the odor of nashinality about it?" "No," ses I, "Kernel. I don't see it." "Wal," see he because it is cented paper)" "Wal," ses I, "Kernel, now kin you tell me why that fifty cent shinplaster is like the war?" Ses he, "Majer you've got me there."—'Wall,' ses I, 'the face is black which means that we are fighin to free the nigger, and the back is red—or the blood—the price we are payin for it!

When I sed this the Kernel brought his hand down on the tabil like all possessed, giv a kick with his foot that sent his slipper flyin clear across the room, and ses he, "Majer, by the———."Ses I, "Kernel, hold on. Do you want to take any more elder bark tea?" When I sed this he tapered rite down, and ses he, jest as good as pie, "let's have some old rye and make frends."

So I didn't object, but the messige ain't finished yet, and the Lord only knows when it will be dun.

Yourn till deth,

MAJER JACK DOWNING.

ROMANTIC STORY.

Upwards of 30 years ago a marriage took place in this neighborhood (Liverpool,) the man and wife being in humble circumstances. After living together till after the birth of a child, the husband went to Australia to seek his fortune. His wife never heard from him after he left her, and supposing he was dead, on the lapse of seven years she married a widower with three children. To this number in her second married life she added five, making her whole family, including the child by her first husband, nine in all. Some time since the second husband died, and she was left to struggle with her large family. To her great surprise, at the beginning of the present year her first husband made his appearance at Liverpool. During his thirty years' absence he had prospered in Australia, and was a large land proprietor there.—He had heard of his wife's second marriage but as the fault was his he never thought of returning to England until he heard of the death of the second husband. To make amends for his former neglect of his wife—notwithstanding her second marriage she was still his wife—he behaved in the most handsome manner to all her children, gave them costly outfits, has taken them and the wife of his early affections out with him to the land of his adoption. The wife, who has thus, after an absence of more than 30 years, been restored to her position, is now about 70 years of age.—Liverpool Mercury.

THE DEAD WIFE.

Yes the wife you loved so foundly, cherished so tenderly is dead. She lies in the shady room she loved so well; but she heeds not now where they place her. You go in and look on the calm and sweet face—marble like in its repose—no smile beams there on your approach. The warm blood mounts no longer to the soft cheek. You press your lips wildly to hers, that for the first time give back no answering pressure.—You take the little pale hand in yours, but the slender fingers clasp around yours no longer. You breathe the name that has ever been the dearest to you in the wide world, but she hears your voice no more; she is DEAD! They robe her in a snowy shroud and lay her in a narrow coffin. Oh! can you live while she is 'prisoned there, you wildly ask. The minister of God says a few solemn words—weeping friends gather round to take a last farewell, and when turned away you stand by her but for the last time. Can it be you must part with her forever; that you look for the last time on that dear face,—press the last kiss to her cold lips; but no tears come to your relief, and friends draw you away but you watch the undertaker as he folds the muslin over that face, and turns the coffin lid closely down. You feel as if you would suffocate. He does not heed, but puts the screws in quickly, tightly and you follow her to the grave that yawns to receive the form clasped so many times to your heart. You see them lower her in, and hear the clods with a dull hollow sound upon her coffin. Oh! methinks there is no sound on earth that brings such feelings to the heart, as the sound of earth as it falls, covering the forms of those we love. You seek your darkened home, but no white arms are clasped round your neck; no sweet voice bids you welcome; no blue eyes look into yours speaking the love the lips do not always utter.

Here is where she used to sit close by your side; here the books she read: there her piano stands open with your favorite song spread out; but she will sit by your side, read for you, play for you, no more forever. You stand by the window and look out in the garden: the flowers she planted are blossoming as brightly as if her hand had trained them up this very morning, but off beyond the garden you see the quaint church spire, and there, close by, she slumbers. You turn away and sit down with all this agony at your heart, and memory takes you back to the long ago, to the first hour of your acquaintance with her, and you feel you loved her then and love her now better than you can love any one on earth. And you are right; she will ever be nearest and dearest. You remember talking with her long ago of death, and of her saying she would wish to go first, for she could never part with you on earth and live, and she has gone first; but can you live without HER? You read the letters she penned to you in your absence—you look on a tress of sunny hair severed after death, with a grief at your heart which will not be hushed.

Years pass on, and another may brighten your home, but as you listen to her merry words and joyous laugh, when the dark eyes look in your own, when her hand is warmly closed in yours, the memory of the early loved and lost will sweep over your own heart until you forget the loving one by your side. Sometimes you see a face or form that resembles hers, or hear a voice low and soft as hers used to be and you find the young heart mouldering in the grave is as dear to you as ever, though another fills her place by your side, and you thought for a time you had given her up. But no, she comes often to you as you sit by your cheerful fireside; you feel the arms circling round your neck, the soft lips pressed to your brow; see the eyes so mild and loving, looking down through yours into your soul; you hear the low tones telling you again how dear you are, but you start up nervously and look around on those gathered about you, trying to shake off the illusion as you remember how long she has been sleeping. Ah, the first true love of the heart never will, never can die out. It may be silent for a time, but it will rise up like a ghost to haunt the hours that might otherwise be happy. The heart, thank God, is locked away from all human eyes.

The Party of Purity.

A new revolution has just come to light.—The party that stole more in the first year of their reign, than was expended during the whole of Mr. Buchanan's Administration, seem to be keeping up their reputation. The city has been full of strange rumors for a few days past, in relation to Mr. Deputy Collector Henry B. Stanton, one of the attaches of the Tribune.—Mr. Stanton is well known as a prominent Abolition politician, and a Deputy Collectorship was created especially for him. The duties appertaining to it were the business of shipping goods to Matamoras and ports in the southern States. Of course, it was necessary to have a "very loyal" man in this position, or else the "rebels" might be greatly benefited thereby.—The Sunday Atlas says:—

"Persons who wish to ship merchandize South are obliged to give heavy bonds that the goods shall not run the blockade, and that they are not intended to be sold in any manner to the rebels. It was Mr. Stanton's business to examine the sureties, accept the bonds when properly executed, and cancel them when sufficient evidence was produced that the goods had reached their legal destination.

It seems that Mr. Stanton has been suspended or removed, the Solicitor of the Treasury having come on to make an investigation. The charges against Mr. Stanton, it is said, relate to the cancelling of the bonds above referred to. Recently some of these bonds have been abstracted. Mr. Stanton's friends declare that it was done by a clerk in the Custom-House. At all events, it appears they are gone. Whether the matter is to be fully investigated, or hushed up, like other affairs, under this "model Administration," remains to be seen. Mr. Stanton is a model of a "loyalist," and ought to be sustained, if any one.—N. Y. Daybook.

HOW LEFORT GOT HIS WIFE.

Lefort was a man some forty years old, with an income of fifteen thousand francs, fond of pictures, and painting landscapes himself in a very remarkable manner. He lived in Rue de Province, in an apartment in the third story, where he was often visited by his friend Decamps, the distinguished painter who has recently died in Paris, who was very fond of Lefort and of sitting to talk in his rooms. They passed long evenings in chatting and smoking together before an open window which overlooked the vast gardens of the Hotel Lafitte and the Hotel Rothschild.

One day, Lefort arrived at the cafe with a long face and an air of great dissatisfaction.—"What is the matter?" said Decamps.

"The matter is, that I am wretched at having to move from our apartment."

"Are you going to leave it?"

Yes, my landlord wanted to raise my rent.—I resisted—he insisted. I grew angry and gave up the rooms. I am wretched now.

You were so fond of those rooms."

"Ah well, take back your lease."

"You are right, I will take it back."

The next day Lefort had still the long face and the grieved air of the previous day. He had wished to resume his lease but it was too late. The apartment was let for a term of nine years.

Lefort must move by the last of October.—His landlord informed him, however, in an obliging manner, that the person who was to succeed him would not arrive from the country till the middle of November, and that he had all that time to seek an apartment to suit him; only Lefort must leave empty a part of the suit of rooms to store the furniture of his successor. Lefort consented to this joyful, and the furniture of the new tenant was brought in. Meantime Decamps, who saw him still so sorrowful at having to quit his rooms, said to him one day:

"There is, perhaps, some way to arrange with years new successor."

"I do not know him, and don't wish to try to make a bargain."

"Show me his furniture," said Decamps and I can guess what sort of a man he is.'

Lefort conducted Decamps into the room where the furniture of the new tenant was placed.

"Hum, hum," said Decamps, on casting his eyes over the articles, all this is simple, comfortable, in good taste—furniture for an income of twenty thousand francs, lately removed.—It is the right sort of a man, or rather it is a woman; here is a woman's furniture—this toilet, this wash table, this book stand of inlaid work.'

"But the husband?'

"I don't see any husband in the matter, no masculine furniture, a single bed, no bureau; we only want to know if she is a widow, a young girl, or an old maid."

"How shall we find out that?"

He opened the toilette table. There was a shell comb, to which was attached two magnificent hairs of golden blond.

"Good! this hair does not belong to an old woman; let us look farther." He perceived a portrait turned against the wall.—He turned the canvass. It was the portrait of a woman—blond, very pretty, painted in 1825 by Horsent.

It is the portrait of the lady," said Decamps. "It is the portrait of a married woman: the dress indicates it. This woman was about twenty when it was painted.—She must be still very pretty. She is an intelligent woman—loving art, I judge, by the selection of books in this library, by the music on the piano. My friend, you will not quit your apartment."

"I must ask this lady to give it up to me, then."

"No, you must ask her to share it with you; you must marry her."

"You are mad; you are laughing at me."

"I speak very seriously. Your furniture seems made to go with that of the lady. The suite of rooms is too large for one of you alone; it is exactly what is wanted for you two."

"But I don't wish to marry."

"You are wrong. You are forty years old; this lady suits you in every respect.—She pleases me, this woman, and I wish you to marry her. Let me manage."

Lefort gave him leave. When the lady came from the country, she was surprised to find her rooms occupied and her furniture doubled.—Decamps awaited her. He showed the lady the rooms arranged by himself, and the portrait of Lefort hung oppsite her own.

"See, madam," said he, "what wonderful harmony between those articles of furniture.—See how well the portrait matches your own.—It is certainly the portrait of the man who should be your husband."

The lady was sensible and kind. She was not angry, and laughed heartily: and as he was a sensible man, distingu, a very good fellow, with a suitable fortune, he was accepted. He married the widow and did not leave the rooms.

He never left them till last year, at the death of his wife, whom he adored and whom he rendered happy till the last moment. Decamps remained their friend, and both, whenever they saw him, thanked him for having made the marriage of their furniture.

"A WHOLE NAGER."—At a recent negro celebration, an Irishman stood listening to Fred. Douglas, who was expatiating upon Government and Freedom, and as the orator came to a period from the highest political heights, the Irishman said:

"Bedad, he spakes well for a nager."

"Don't you know," said one, "that he isn't a negro? he is only half negro."

"Only a half nager, is he? Well, if a half nager can talk in that style, I'm thinking a whole nager might beat the prophet Jeremiah.

What They Promised.

THE FRIENDS OF GOV. CURTIN PROMISED THE PEOPLE THAT IF THEY WOULD RE-ELECT HIM, THE WAR WOULD END IN 30 DAYS AND THERE WOULD BE NO MORE DRAFTING. HOLD THEM TO THEIR PROMISES.

What is the Republic?

A strange hallucination seems to have possessed the minds of some people, to the effect that the "Union" is the parent, master and ruler of the States, that the States exist only by virtue of powers granted them by the "Union" and that when the "Union" ceases to be, the States are obliterated and "chaos is come again." Now, if this were true, the State Government of Pennsylvania would, even at this day, be a nullity, for it is admitted, by the very men who hold the views just referred to, that the "Union" no longer exists, nay more, it is stoutly maintained by them that the "Union" can never be restored. But these doctrines are false. The history of our country refutes them. The States existed before there was any "Union." It was by separate State action that the Republic was established. (We say Republic, because critically and legally speaking, the "Republic of the United States of America," is the only proper name of our Government.) Before the separate action of the individual States which sent delegates to the Constitutional Convention, the Republic, for which "The Union," in our day, is a pet name, did not exist. The delegates of the several States met together and adopted the Federal Constitution, by which the Republic was formed, in which the powers of the Federal Government are defined and through which the several States are held together in the form of nationality. Thus, by the separate State action, that sent delegates to the Convention which framed the Federal Constitution and by the ultimate individual action of the States which ratified the adoption of the Constitution, a union of the States, for mutual protection and defence, was established. Hence, the States are the creators of the Republic—the parents of the "Union"—and not vice versa, as the defenders of the "State Suicide" doctrine would have us believe. And this is the simple naked truth of plain, unvarnished history. Politics have nothing to do with it. It is merely a fact. What, then, is the Republic? Whither shall we go for an answer to this question? Must we not look to the Federal Constitution, the charter granted to the Federal Government, by separate State action, for the solution of the problem? To that instrument alone can we refer for light upon this subject. There the political geography of the Republic is clearly mapped out, and its metes and bounds marked with unmistakable distinctness. Therefore, we find that the Republic is the Government authorized by the Federal Constitution, which was formed by the separate action of the several States. Beyond this, there is not, nor has there been, since the first Presidency of Washington, any other government for the United States of America. Hence the Constitution and the Republic are convertible terms, and the former being the creature of the States, the existence of the latter must, of course, also be referred to the same creative agency. This being the case, it follows, that though the Federal Government may be overturned and the union between the States disrupted, yet the States themselves remain intact, their individuality never having been merged in their creature, the Republic.

Congress.

On Monday last Congress assembled and elected SCHUYLER COLFAX, Abolitionist, of Indiana, Speaker. The Abolitionists seem to have a working majority in the Lower House, as well as in the Senate. This has been accomplished by military interference in the elections held in Maryland, Missouri, Kentucky and Delaware, and by having Congressmen elected in West Virginia, East Virginia and other districts that have no legal or constitutional existence. Well, they have the power, now, in both branches of Congress, they have the President, the Governor and Legislature of Pennsylvania and of all the Northern States except two. If they don't put an end to the war by the next Presidential election, the people ought to know whom to blame.

☞Col. Hafer has sold the Bedford Hotel to Joshua J. Shoemaker, who will shortly take possession. Mr. Shoemaker is one of the cleverest men we know, and will make an excellent "landlord." We are sorry to part with Col. Hafer, who has been our next door neighbor for nearly seven years.

☞Maj. A. J. Sansom, who will shortly retire from the office of County Treasurer, which he has filled with so great fidelity, gave a dinner to some friends, a few days ago, at which we had the pleasure of being one of the guests. The dinner reflected great credit upon the cookery of Mrs. Sansom, having been gotten up in excellent style, and was duly appreciated by all present.

SAVING MONEY.—It would be well for farmers to remember that in every ton of hay saved, from $15 to $25 are made. We are glad to see that the farmers of this and adjoining counties are "waking up" and learning that often $100.00 may be made by spending $50.00.—Our friend, Wm. Hartley, seems to exercise excellent judgment in his selection of labor-saving machines, and without saying one word to disparage his Gum-spring Seeder, Iron and Steel Mower and other useful machines, we must say that nothing could be better adapted to its purpose than the "Eureka Hay, Straw and Stalk Cutter and Crusher." Hartley, we understand, is selling hundreds of these Cutters and Crushers, in this and adjoining counties, and we hear nothing but praise from all who use them. The No. 3 and No. 2 give the best satisfaction, being horse-power machines, and are well worth all they cost, considering the excellent style in which they are made and their great usefulness in the saving of feed. One of our friends says he will save at least $200.00 worth of hay this winter by getting one of these cutters.

THE COMING DRAFT.—It will be well for parents having two or more sons subject to the draft, to remember that they are entitled to elect one of them to be exempted from the operation of the next draft. But this must be done before the drawing takes place. Parents who are thus situated and who desire to exempt one of their sons, should at once have the proper papers drawn up and make their application.—We believe it is not necessary, in this case, that the parents must be dependent on the labor of the sons for support.

DEATH of BEDFORD COUNTY SOLDIERS.—We regret to learn that a son of Samuel Whip, Esq., of Cumberland Valley, and Sergeant Simon Stuckey, both of the 138th P. V., who were wounded during the recent advance of Meade, have died of their injuries. We believe their remains have been sent home to their friends.

MAJ. JOHN H. FILLER.—We believe it is not generally known that this officer is a prisoner at Columbia, S. C. He was taken at one of the unsuccessful assaults on Fort Wagner. Maj. Filler certainly showed great bravery in that desperate struggle.

ADJUTANT GUMP.—Lieut. John A. Gump, of the 138th, has for some time acted as Adjutant of that regiment, receiving the commendation of his superior officers for his gallantry and good conduct. Adj't Gump is a true man and one whom we shall be glad to welcome home, "when this cruel war is over."

SOME PIGS.—Mr. Joseph D. Sleek, of St. Clair tp., butchered, a few days ago, one hog, 17 months old, weighing 457 pounds, another 11 months old, weighing 326 pounds, another weighing 303 and another weighing 268. Who owns the "piggies" that will beat them?

FRESH OYSTERS.—All who want a good dish of fresh oysters, please call at John Harris', at the Old Rising Sun Corner. Mr. Wm. Earnest will wait upon you in his usual accommodating and agreeable manner.

THE WAYNESBURG MESSENGER.—This excellent Democratic paper has donned a new suit of type and looks as bright as its senior editor on a certain morning after being shampooned as to his head, and trimmed as to that grand and flowing beard. We are glad to see this evidence of the Messenger's prosperity.

☞The Provost Marshal requests that the names of such persons as are known not to be enrolled to be forwarded to him. We hope this matter will be attended to so that the enrolment will be full. As it stands at present it is quite imperfect, many persons subject to draft not being enrolled, and what is queer about it, nearly all of them belonging to the Abolition party. Let the people of the county see to this, as every man liable to the draft is interested in it.

☞The eighth campaign towards Richmond, has just been concluded, and the Army of the Potomac is on the same ground occupied by it last year. But oh! to think how many lives have been lost, how many families bereaved and how much treasure spent in this tread-mill "On to Richmond!" It is enough to make the angels weep.

☞Godey's Lady's Book for December is a gem. The illustrations are very pretty and quite copious and the literary contents varied and excellent. Godey is a vade mecum for the ladies.

COL. GATES OF THE U. S. ARMY,

Says that during his campaign in Mexico he would rather retire to his couch without his sword than a bottle of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF. It was the only medicine he used through the Mexican campaign. Gen. J. Hobart Ward, of the Army of the Potomac, first became acquainted with its virtues in Mexico, and always keeps it in his camp. In sudden attacks of Diarrhœa, Dysentery, pain in the bowels, head, stomach, or in cases of Rheumatism, Neuralgia or wounds, cuts, bruises, or sore throat, Influenza, Hoarseness, Radway's Ready Relief cures immediately. Let none who value health and safety be without it.

☞OLD ABE has refused to exchange white prisoners of war, because he thinks the nigger does not get his rights. Does any one suppose that he would refuse to exchange negroes if only white men were to suffer?

☞A WEEK or so ago, the Secretary of War announced to the country that he had reliable information that the rebels were about to invade the country from Canada. The Canadian papers only laugh at it, and say there is not a word of truth in the report.

Conservative Convention at Cincinnati.

The Conservative Old Line Whig Convention, at Cincinnati, on Thursday, was attended by a respectable and influential delegation from all parts of the North and Border States. Ex-Governor Campbell, of Tennessee, was chosen President. This Convention is deliberating with closed doors, and but little, thus far, has transpired of its proceedings. It is understood that the remarks of the delegates were of the strongest and most decided character against the policy of the Administration.

Senator Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, declared that military interference with elections was atrocious and infamous, and was sapping the foundations of American liberty. The platform of the Convention will probably be an appeal to the Southern States to return to the Union; in which contingency, they are to enjoy every right of personal property they had before secession. The war is to be prosecuted for that object and none other.

There are decidedly united feelings among the delegates. No Presidential preference will be avowed at present; that will be left to a more numerous and general convention to be held at some future day. The present Convention will only issue an address and resolutions. The Convention will probably continue two or three days.

Chief Justice Taney.

Extract from a letter written by a distinguished gentleman to a friend in Boston, dated "Washington, Nov. 30, 1863:"

"Yours of the 28th inst., is received. I see the Chief Justice often, and talk with him by the hour. He has no intention of resigning. His general health is good, and his mind is apparently as vigorous and clear as ever. His life is devoted to two leading objects—the performance of his duty to his God and his country. He worships the one and venerates the other, and desires to serve both in the best possible manner. He is rather amused than offended at the apparent wish of partisans who manifest such indecent zeal to have him vacate his seat. A more pure-minded or patriotic man never lived; and I have no knowledge of one more able or learned in all that concerns our institutions. In manner and thought Chief Justice Taney has all the simplicity and directness of a child. But when you touch the Constitution and laws of our country—whether of the intercourse between nations, or matters on the sea, as in admiralty or on land, as in applying the common law, or the statutes of Congress or of the States—he has now no living superior. God grant that he may long live for the benefit of our country."

The Hartford Election.

The city of Hartford, Conn., elected town officers last week with a sweeping Democratic victory. The Hartford Times says:

"The Democrats elected their entire ticket, of forty men, by majorities ranging from 319 to 434 votes. This aggregate vote—3,819—is the largest ever polled at a fall election in this town—it being larger by 379 votes than it was last year. The Democrats have increased their vote this year 213 votes; the Disunionists have increased theirs 166. The average Democratic vote on Selectmen is 2,068; the average Disunion is 1,749 and two-fifths votes. Democratic majority, 319. On Collector the Democratic majority is 434; on Town Clerk it is 378."

The Times further says: "Conservative men, who have become alarmed at the fearful course of events—at the great strides to despotism that are so manifest—came up nobly and assisted in putting down the disunionists in a handsome manner. The Democracy came out well, and still had a reserve of 700 voters, who were ready to leave their places of business the moment it should be found that the disunionists were endangering their ticket. But their help was not called for."

The Gettysburg Ceremony.

We hope that we have no reader who will be able to read the official dispatches sent from Gettysburg without a blush of shame. The Governor, it seems, did not reach there in time to participate in the proceedings of Tuesday evening, which were of "a lively character."—Mr. Lincoln made a joke or two; Mr. Seward, who has become nervously anxious as to his fame as a prophet, vindicated his pretensions by the assertion that forty years ago he had anticipated that the battle of freedom would be fought upon the field of Gettysburg; and Mr. Forney referred to the political aspect of the campaign. It is thus that the President of the United States and his confidential advisers deport themselves in the presence of the historic field where two hundred thousand of their countrymen, four months ago met in deadly conflict. It is thus that they render homage to the heroic dead. With the groans of the wounded still resounding in the air—the corpses of the slain still unburied—the bereaved still clad in the emblems of mourning, and their tears still flowing—these men meet to laugh and joke and electioneer.—Age.

The War.

We have received official intelligence that the siege of Knoxville is at an end. On last Friday Gen. LONGSTREET ceased offensive operations and marched with a cavalry rear guard towards Virginia. On Thursday Gen. SHERMAN'S expedition, sent from Chattanooga for BURNSIDE'S relief approached Knoxville on the west and formed a junction with the garrison. Longstreet, with all his trains and artillery, retreated past Foster's outposts on the Clinch, skirmishing with them as he marched along.—A junction was at once formed with Burnside, and his line of communication is now open with Cumberland Gap. Longstreet's progress beyond Foster's camps is not known.

There are Southern accounts of the retreat of Grant's army to Mission Ridge. No change has been made in the disposition of forces at Chattanooga since yesterday's advices. The Confederate General Breckinridge, who was reported killed, is safe at Dalton where he was serenaded a few days since.

The Confederates claim to have captured five hundred prisoners from General Meade in his late expedition to Mine river. Among the captured is General Meagher, of New York.—They report that nothing was left behind by the Federal army in its retreat to the northern bank of the Rapidan. Gen. Lee has crossed several regiments over the Rapidan at each of the fords thus occupying the ground to the north of them. The Federal lines do not now extend to the river; and the Confederate picket line is within a stone's throw of Culpeper. There is no expectation of any active operations. The newspapers are filled with harsh and ungenerous criticisms of General Meade, who certainly deserves praise for not wasting life in a foolish attempt to capture an impregnable position.—Age.

Meeting of the National Union Committee.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 4.—The National Union Committee met, yesterday, at the Burnett House, Ex-Governor William B. Campbell, of Tennessee, acting as Chairman pro tem. Hon. Amos Kendall was chosen permanent President, and William C. Hand, of New York, Treasurer.—A public meeting of the Convention was held at 12 o'clock to-day, when addresses were made by Hon. Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, and others.

The subject of the next Presidency was fully discussed; and the nomination of General McClellan was urged upon the Advisory Committee; which Committee, at a meeting held this evening, postponed the subject until the 23d inst., at a meeting of the Committee in Philadelphia.

The Nation is Drunk.

The New York World says.—"We need no longer wonder at the Parisians who thronged the theatres during the worst excesses of the French revolution. In the midst of this terrible civil war, which is draining the best blood of the country and mortgaging its property with a debt our children will stagger under, we are spending more money in amusements and gayeties than ever before. Private balls and parties were never so numerous, and as for theatres they were never so thronged. It is quite safe to say that this winter will see twice the money spent on balls, parties, theatres, opera, and dresses to attend them, of any former season in the metropolis. This state of things cannot last always. The intoxication the country is now laboring under will be followed before long by a season of profound depression."

Rebel Raid in the Cherokee Nation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Indian Superintendent Coffin has arrived in this city, bringing to the Indian Bureau an official report concerning a raid that was made several weeks ago into the Cherokee country, by, as is supposed, a party of Quantrell's guerillas, who destroyed the public buildings at Taolequah and the property of Union citizens, including that of John Ross. A son-in-law of the latter was murdered by the band.

The New York City Election.

ELECTION OF GUNTHER, PEACE DEMOCRAT FOR MAYOR.

New York, Dec. 1—Returns from the city, with the exception of one district, give the following vote for Mayor:—

For C. Godfrey Gunther, Peace Dem.,	28,881
For Francis J. A. Boole, Dem.,	22,478
For Orison Blunt, Union,	19,403

Gunther's purality will be over 6,400.

ANOTHER STUPENDOUS FRAUD ON THE GOVERNMENT.

Another Stupendous fraud on the Government, amounting to over $640,000, has just come to light in the office of the Quartermaster at Alexandria. The fraud has been in the receipt and delivery of forage for the Army of the Potomac. Captain Stoddard, one of the parties implicated, is under arrest, and confined in the Old Capitol Prison.

"BIG THING"—The "loyal" citizens of Allegheny county, that gave Curtin over seven thousand majority, furnished at the last draft 135 soldiers to "fight for the Union." All the rest of the draft, 4,068, were exempted! This is a picture of abolition "loyalty."

☞The woollyheads want to double the President's salary. That's right; don't muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. Make it a million. Call it a millionary-necessity."

IT WAS of such men as Beecher, Cheever, Tyng and Bellows that Isaiah said, "Your hands are full of blood,"—and the Psalmist exclaimed, "Depart from me therefore, ye bloody men." "Continually are they gathered for war. They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent! adders' poison is under their lips."

☞Formerly, men would say—"I am glad I was in church." Now, many say—"I am glad I was not in church," particularly, when, after an abolition sermon, it is asserted publicly, that "the copperheads got their bellies full."

☞"ON TO RICHMOND.—What has become of the on to Richmond cry of the abolitionists? It has not been used since McClellan was removed. He was "too slow;" what rapid progress has been made since his removal!

The wife of Ex-President Franklin Pierce, died Wednesday morning, at Andover, Mass.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Attempt of the Rebels to pursue Gen. Meade.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Dec. 4, 1863.

Our Pickets Driven in at Germania by Rebel Cavalry.

Last night our pickets were driven in at Germania Ford by the rebel cavalry, and the long roll was sounded throughout the camp; but the enemy retreated back across the river before any damage was done, and the army soon regained its usual quiet.

Appearance of the Rebels on the opposite side of the Rapidan.

Last night the rebels appeared in force on the opposite side of the Rapidan and threatened to cross. Our baggage and trains were sent to the rear, the long roll was called, and our boys prepared for a fight; but the rebels did not come over, and we soon settled down into our usual peace and quietness.

Our Recent Losses.

Seven hundred and twelve men, wounded in the late campaign, are being sent to Washington to-day.

Our losses will exceed, rather than fall short of one thousand.

Gen. Foster Repulsed by Longstreet—Affairs at Knoxville—The Enemy Repulsed on Sunday.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 4.—The Commercial has a special dispatch from Cumberland Gap, dated yesterday, stating that fighting was going on, on Wednesday, at Walker's Ford, twenty miles from the Gap, between General Foster's and Longstreet's cavalry. In attempting to cross the Clinch river, General Foster was met by the enemy and repulsed, with the loss of fifty men. They captured four pieces of artillery.

A LATER REPORT,

HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC, Dec. 4th, P. M.—A light division of rebel troops crossed the Rapidan, this afternoon, at some point above Raccoon Ford, probably on a reconnoissance.

Since this information came to camp considerable cannonading has been heard in that direction, and it is supposed that their advance has been checked by our light batteries, which have been attached to the cavalry arm of the service, in pursuance of Gen. Meade's orders.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.

Our Losses in the Late Battles-Forty-Six Guns Captured.

CHATTANOOGA, Dec., 4—Everything quiet along our entire line. Our casualties in the late battles foot up four thousand five hundred. The 4th Corps alone lost two thousand three hundred and fifty. The prisoners captured are six thousand four hundred and fifty. Guns captured, forty six.

The expedition to relieve General Burnside is under General Sherman, who has doubtless reached Knoxville.

The most important work now is to re-open the railroad from Bridgeport to Chattanooga, and the work is being pushed with great vigor.

A FORTUNE FOR ALL! EITHER MEN OR WOMEN!!!

NO HUMBUG, but an ENTIRELY NEW thing.

Only three months in this country! No clap-trap operation to gull the public, but a genuine money-making thing! Read the Circular of instruction once only, and you will understand it perfectly. A Lady has just written to me that she is making as high as TWENTY DOLLARS SOME DAYS! giving instructions in this art. Thousands of soldiers are making money rapidly at it. No person has to be urged to patronize it. It is a thing that takes better than anything ever before offered. You can make money with it home or abroad—on steamboats or railroad cars, and in the country or city. You will be pleased in pursuing it, not only because it will yield a handsome income, but also in consequence of the general admiration which it elicits. It is pretty much all profit. A mere trifle is necessary to start with.

There is scarcely one person out of thousands who ever pays any attention to advertisements of this kind, thinking they are humbugs. Consequently those who do send for instructions will have a broad field to make money in. There is a class of persons in this world who think that because they have been humbugged out of a dollar or so, that every thing that is advertised is a humbug. Consequently they try no more. The person who succeeds is the one that keeps on trying until he hits something that pays him.

This art cost me one thousand dollars, and I expect to make money out of it—and all who purchase the art of me will do the same. One Dollar sent to me will insure the prompt return of a card of instructions in the art. The money will be returned to those not satisfied. Address

Gallery, Reception and Operating Rooms

ALL ON FIRST FLOOR.

All styles and sizes of Photographs, Ivorytypes, Ferrotypes or "Tintypes" and taken at prices to suit the times.

Pictures finished in Water Colors, Oil, India Ink and Pastil.

Horses and other Animals, Equipages, Country Seats, Ruins, Models of Machinery, &c., for patenting accurately photographed.

P. F. Cooper desires to call the attention of persons visiting Philadelphia to his new Ground Floor Gallery, where he has introduced newly-patented cameras, capable of taking, in a few seconds, one hundred Photographs, from the small stamp or autographic, to the Imperial and Life Size.

After many experiments he has succeeded in placing his sky-light at an improved angle, diffusing the light in equal proportions, and producing that soft gradation of tone which cannot be given by the side and sky-lights generally used, and which is of so much importance to the beauty of a picture. It is made of French glass, and is the largest in Philadelphia.

Mr. Cooper has been engaged more than twenty years in the study and practice of the Fine Arts. His long experience as a Miniature and Portrait Painter is a sufficient guarantee for the perfection of the pictures made at his establishment.

The art of idealizing is well understood; none but the most skilful artists are employed in the respective departments.

All Pictures Warranted;—the Ivorytypes will not change in any climate, and will stand the test of acids. Particular attention is paid to giving graceful and easy positions.

Daguerreotypes and all other kinds of pictures copied, from small medallion to life size, and finished in colors or Indian ink, to look equal to pictures taken from life.

This Gallery possesses rare facilities for taking Equestrian Pictures from life, in the rear building, where from one to fifty horses can be photographed at a time.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. U. S. 5.20's.

The Secretary of the Treasury has not yet given notice of any intention to withdraw this popular Loan from Sale at Par, and until 10 days notice is given, the undersigned, as 'General Subscription Agent,' will continue to supply the public.

The whole amount of the Loan authorized is Five Hundred Millions of Dollars. Nearly Four Hundred Millions have been already subscribed for and paid into the Treasury, mostly within the last seven months. The large demand from abroad, and the rapidly increasing home demand for use as the basis for circulation by National Banking Associations now organizing in all parts of the country, will, in a very short period, absorb the balance. Sales have lately ranged from ten to fifteen millions weekly, frequently exceeding three millions daily, and as it is well known that the Secretary of the Treasury has ample and unfailing resources in the Duties on Imports and Internal Revenues, and in the issue of the Interest bearing Legal Tender Treasury Notes, it is almost a certainty that he will not find it necessary, for a long time to come, to seek a market for any other long or permanent loans, THE INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL OF WHICH ARE PAYABLE IN GOLD.

Prudence and self-interest must force the minds of those contemplating the formation of National Banking Associations, as well as the minds of all who have idle money on their hands, to the prompt conclusion that they should lose no time in subscribing to this most popular Loan. It will soon be beyond their reach, and advance to a handsome premium, as was the result with the "Seven Thirty" Loan, when it was all sold and could no longer be subscribed for at par.

It is a Six per Cent. Loan, the Interest and Principal payable in Coin, thus yielding over Nine per Cent. per annum at the present rate of premium on coin.

The Government requires all duties on imports to be paid in Coin; these duties have for a long time past amounted to over a Quarter of a Million of Dollars daily, a sum nearly three times greater than that required in the payment of the interest on all the 5-20's and other permanent Loans. So that it is hoped that the surplus Coin in the Treasury, at no distant day, will enable the United States to resume specie payments upon all liabilities.

The Loan is called 5-20 from the fact that whilst the Bonds may run for 20 years yet the Government has a right to pay them off in Gold at par, at any time after 5 years.

THE INTEREST IS PAID HALF-YEARLY, viz: on the first days of November and May.

Subscribers can have Coupon Bonds, which are payable to bearer, and are $50, $100, and $1000; or Registered Bonds of same denominations, and in addition, $5,000, and $10,000. For Banking purposes and for investments of Trust-monies the Registered Bonds are preferable.

These 5-20's cannot be taxed by States, cities, towns or counties, and the Government tax on them is only one-and-a-half per cent., on the amount of income, when the income of the holder exceeds Six Hundred dollars per annum; all other investments, such as income from Mortgages, Railroad Stock and Bonds, etc., must pay from three to five per cent. tax on the income.

Banks and Bankers throughout the Country will continue to dispose of the Bonds; and all orders by mail, or otherwise, promptly attended to.

The inconvenience of a few days' delay in the delivery of the Bonds is unavoidable, the demand being so great; but as interest commences from the day of subscription, no loss is occasioned, and every effort is being made to diminish the delay.

Subscription Agent,

DR. RADWAY'S PILLS.

DR. RADWAY'S PILLS,

ARE THE BEST PURGATIVE PILLS.
ARE THE BEST PURGATIVE PILLS.
ARE THE BEST PURGATIVE PILLS.

NO STRAINING.
NO GRIPING.
NO TENESMUS.
NO PILES.

NO FALSE CALLS TO THE WATER CLOSET,

BUT A BRISK AND THOROUGH EVACUATION FROM THE BOWELS IS ALWAYS SECURED.

Newly Discovered Principles in Purgatives.

Dr Radway's Pills are the best Purgative Pills in the world, and the only Vegetable Substitute for Calomel or Mercury ever discovered. They are composed of VEGETABLE EXTRACTS FROM ROOTS, HERBS, PLANTS, GUMS, SEEDS, FLOWERS, BARKS, FRUITS AND WEEDS, PREPARED IN VACUO.

One grain of the extract of the medicinal properties of Radway's Pills, possess a greater curative power over disease than a thousand of the crude and inert materials that enter into all other pills in use. These Pills are compounded of the active medicinal properties of the Roots, Herbs, Plants, Flowers, Gums, &c. of which they are composed. One dose will prove their superiority to all other pills. They

PURGE, CLEANSE, PURIFY, HEAL,
SOOTHE, CALM, STRENGTHEN,
INVIGORATE,

And REGULATE THE SYSTEM.

Their Great Combinations.

They are Aperient, Tonic, Laxative, Alterative, Stimulant, Counter Irritant, Sudorific.

AS EVACUANTS,

They are more certain and thorough than the Drastic Pills of Aloes, or Croton or Harlem Oil, or Elaterium; and more soothing and healing than Senna, or Rhubarb, or Tamarinds, or Castor Oil.

IN SUDDEN ATTACKS OF

Inflammation of the Bowels or Stomach, Liver, Spleen, Pancreas or Kidneys, Bilious Cholic or Bilious Fever, Erysipelas or Congestive Fever, Small Pox, Measles, or Scarlet Fever,

SIX TO EIGHT OF DR. RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS WILL PURGE THE PRIMARY CAUSE OF THESE FROM THE SYSTEM IN SIX HOURS.

One dose of Dr. Radway's Pills will cleanse the intestinal canal, and purge from the bowels all offending and retained humors, as thoroughly as lobelia or the best approved emetic will cleanse the stomach, without producing inflammation, irritation, weakness, or other unpleasant symptoms. There are no other purgative pills in the world that will secure this desideratum.

STRAINING,

BETTER THAN CALOMEL OR BLUE PILL.
BETTER THAN CALOMEL OR BLUE PILL.
BETTER THAN CALOMEL OR BLUE PILL

AS ALTERATIVES,

They exercise a more powerful influence over the liver and its secretions than calomel, mercury, blue pill, hence their importance in cases of Liver Complaints and Spleen Difficulties, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Bilious attacks, Headache, &c. In the treatment of Fevers, either Bilious, Yellow, Typhoid, and other reducing Fevers, they are superior to quinine. Their influence extends over the entire system, controlling, strengthening, and bracing up the relaxed and wasting energies, and regulating all the secretions to the natural performance of their duties, cleansing and purifying the blood, and purging from the system all diseased deposits and impure humors.

"I have suffered with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint for seven years—have used all sorts of pills—they would give me temporary comfort, but was compelled to take them all the time. I have used one box of Dr. Radway's Pills; I am cured. I have not taken a particle of medicine in six months.

C. M. CHILDS, Roxbury, Mass.

PILES, STRAINING AND TENESMUS,
PILES, STRAINING AND TENESMUS,

Are the results of inflammation or irritation of the mucous membrane of the bowels, induced by drastic pills—those imperfect pills, instead of being dissolved by the chile, are carried to the lower bowels, and induce a peristaltic movement or evacuation by their irritation—hence the straining, cramps, wrenching pains, piles and tenesmus, and the frequent false calls to the outer closet, that patients undergo who take these imperfect pills.

If you would avoid those annoyances, whenever a purgative medicine is required, take a dose of RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS.

THEY WILL PURGE THOROUGHLY AND LEAVE THE BOWELS REGULAR.

CELEBRATED

German Bitters,

PREPARED BY

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, Phil'a., Pa.

WILL EFFECTUALLY CURE

LIVER COMPLAINT DYSPEPSIA JAUNDICE

Chronic or nervous debility, diseases of the kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach,

as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fulness, or blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, fulness or weight in the Stomach, sour Eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, swimming of the head hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

And will positively prevent YELLOW FEVER, BILLIOUS FEVER, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL, OR BAD WHISKEY!

They WILL CURE the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN
PHYSICIANS,
AND CITIZENS,

Testifying, of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If you do, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

Philadelphia, June 23, 1861.

From the Rev. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD.

Eighth, below Coates st., Phil., Dec. 24.

From the wife of ALDERMAN WUNDER, Germantown.

Germantown, June 1, 1861.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—SIR:—It gave me pleasure two years ago, to give you a certificate, testifying what the German Bitters had done for me. I am now perfectly cured of all those diseases your medicine professes to cure, viz:—Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous debility, diseases of the Kidneys, &c. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown and is now sold in every Drug store, and in most of the Grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above disease. Respectfully,

HANNAH WUNDER.
